In a tough economy, smart retailers, entrepreneurs and merchants go to where the business is! Like you, they understand the need for mobility and the advantages of making life fast and easy for time-challenged consumers. Technology can help your business keep pace, particularly with a pay-anywhere solution. Cut the cord. Get outside the store.

Why make patrons hand over credit cards, when they can pay right at the table? Take refreshments and souvenirs conveniently down to fans in their seats! Give your taxi and limo riders an easier, safer payment alternative. Think about how such transaction flexibility can increase sales and boost satisfaction. Then think about Lipman... and the proven NURIT Family of transaction-enhancing solutions.

Meeting all of your point-of-sale needs!
